

Hearing on “Democratic Backsliding in Sub-Saharan Africa”

U.S. House of Representatives

House Foreign Affairs Committees

Subcommittee on Africa, Global Health, Global Human Rights, and International Organizations

Mr. Joshua Meservey Biography

Joshua Meservey is the Senior Policy Analyst for Africa and the Middle East at the Heritage Foundation.

He studies African geopolitics and counterterrorism. He is a Returned Peace Corps Volunteer who served in Zambia before joining a refugee resettlement organization based out of Nairobi, Kenya. He later worked at the US Army Special Operations Command and the Atlantic Council’s Africa Center before joining The Heritage Foundation.

He has testified five times before Congress and once before the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission. He is lead author of a monograph on al-Shabaab and contributed a chapter to the book War and Peace in Somalia. He is a frequent commentator on African policy issues in a range of print and digital media outlets, and has presented at the National Defense University and the State Department.

Meservey holds a Master of Arts in Law and Diplomacy from the Fletcher School at Tufts University and a BA in history from the Templeton Honors College at Eastern University.